Dress Rehearsal Procedures: Children 7 and Under

- 1) Bring your student through the stage door and check in at the table
- 2) Proceed to your students' assigned dressing area
- 3) You may opt to leave your child and return later to pick up. Please let staff know if you are dropping off and picking up.
- 4) If you opt to stay, please remain in the dressing area and assist your student with costume overlay and shoe changes.
- 5) Taking photos and videos of the dress rehearsal performances is prohibited.
- 6) When your child is released after their final routine, gather your possessions and exit through the stage door where you entered.
- 7) If you are picking up, check your child out with a staff member at the check-in table.

Dress Rehearsal FAQs

- Students should arrive on time, dressed in their first costume with hair and makeup done.
- Follow the map above to the stage door for student check-in.
- Please bring all costumes, shoes, makeup, and hair products needed - double check bags!
- Students will be assigned a dressing area when they arrive. This may not be the same as the dressing room they will use for the performance. Students who have limited costumes changes will remain in the theatre.
- Time is limited between routines so we can release groups of students early. Students should change costumes as quickly as possible, but know that it will be easier and more spaced out at the performance.
- THIS IS A CLOSED REHEARSAL - Only parents of children 7 and under are able to stay at the rehearsal to assist their children with costume changes. All other parents are not permitted to watch the rehearsal and must drop off/pick up.
- Photos/Videos are NOT permitted during rehearsal.

Performance Day Procedures

Children 7 and Under

- 1) Bring your student through the stage door and check in at the table. You will receive a claim ticket with your child's name that you will need to present at check-out.
- 2) Walk your student to the dressing room and set up their items. Parent volunteers will assist you.
- 3) Exit back out the stage door and proceed around the building to the main lobby entrance.
- 4) Enjoy the show!
- 5) If you opt to come backstage during the show to assist your student with changes, you can exit between routines into the theatre lobby. Proceed through the gallery and downstairs to the dressing room. Cutting through backstage is not permitted. You must return to the audience in the same fashion.
- 6) At the conclusion of the show, exit into the theatre lobby, walk through the gallery and downstairs to the dressing room. Present your claim ticket to check your student out of the dressing room.
- 7) Parent volunteers are welcome! We are looking for parents to stay backstage and assist our small students. You will be given a comp ticket for the show and you can move to your seat to watch your child's routines.

Recital FAQs

- Students should arrive in their first costume with hair and makeup done
- Follow the map above to the door for student check-in.
- Please bring all costumes, shoes, makeup, and hair products needed - double check bags!
- Students will be directed to their assigned dressing room when they check in. Dressing room space is limited, so please make space for everyone and keep possessions organized.
- Parents of children age 7 and under should follow the instructions in the above Procedures list
- Parents are not permitted backstage. We have helpers assigned to each dressing room to assist the students and lead them to and from the stage. Parent volunteers are welcome to assist in the dressing rooms for our younger students!
- Students will wear their Recital T-shirts for bows.
- Tickets will go on sale on May 20th for student accounts that are paid in full. Please make sure to select the correct recital when purchasing tickets! All sales are final!
- After the show, students age 7 and under will be checked out at their dressing room door. All other students will be released to parents in the theatre lobby. Parents should ensure that they collect all of their students' possessions from the dressing rooms.
